For the Jackson List:

Justice Antonin Scalia, an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States since 1986, died today, age 79, in Texas. He served with brilliance, energy, and devotion to his oath and responsibilities. He was, and he will long be remembered and studied as, one of the most consequential Supreme Court justices in U.S. history.

Today is also the 124th anniversary of Justice Robert H. Jackson's birth—he was born on this date, February 13th, on the Jackson family farm in Spring Creek, Warren County, Pennsylvania.

That fact is not unconnected to today's sad loss of Justice Scalia. Justice Jackson served on the Supreme Court from 1941 until his death in 1954. Judge John M. Harlan was appointed to succeed Justice Jackson. When Justice Harlan retired in 1971, William H. Rehnquist was appointed to succeed Justice Harlan. And when Justice Rehnquist was elevated in 1986 to serve as Chief Justice of the U.S., Judge Antonin Scalia was appointed to succeed Rehnquist as an associate justice.

Justice Scalia, in other words, has occupied the Supreme Court's "Jackson seat" for the last thirty years.

More than that, Justice Scalia regularly identified Justice Jackson as his "hero."

Many tonight are feeling, rightly, that they have lost their hero. May he rest in peace.

The Death of U.S. Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia

U.S Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia is dead at 79. His death triggers immediate questions for the high court and the nation on the outcome of significant challenges this term – including on immigration, affirmative action and access to abortion clinics. Battle lines are being drawn over whether President Barack Obama or the next president should name his replacement. In addressing the nation, the president said he would make a pick to replace Scalia. Read More »

Attorney General Lynch and Solicitor General Verrilli Statements on the Passing of Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia

Attorney General Loretta E. Lynch and Solicitor General Donald B. Verrilli Jr. released the following statements regarding the passing of Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia:

"Justice Antonin Scalia was, and will always be remembered as, one of the most influential and eloquent Justices ever to serve on the U.S. Supreme Court," said Attorney General Lynch. "His indomitable conviction and his fierce intelligence left a lasting imprint – not just on the way the Supreme Court resolves cases, but on the legal landscape that he helped to transform. A lion of American law has left the stage, and it is up to all of us – every American – to keep our national constitutional dialogue as lively and as learned as he left it."

"I am saddened by the passing of Justice Antonin Scalia," said Solicitor General Verrilli. "He was a great jurist and a great man who served the Court and the country with honor and distinction. We will miss him very much. On behalf of my colleagues in the Office of the Solicitor General, I extend our deepest condolences to Mrs. Scalia and to the rest of his family."
